

Scottish Community Heritage Alliance

WHAT IS SCHA?

We are a new grassroots initiative led by and for people involved in all aspects of heritage in their communities.

SCHA AIMS TO:

- ▶ provide support and networking at a regional level.
- ▶ provide advocacy, representing grassroots concerns.
- ▶ initiate research which can support our work.

WHY A NEW GROUP?

Many individuals and groups feel that the big players claim to speak on behalf of the grassroots organisations without adequately canvassing their views, or understanding regional differences. A new grassroots organisation can represent these views and advocate for change.

As a member you will have a direct input into priorities, potential membership fees and ways of working. We will hold regional meetings and outreach, with a mixture of online and in person.

Whether you are part of an existing group which would like to affiliate, or an individual, we want to hear from you.
